

U. S. GOVERNMENT ACCEPTS HUERTA'S OFFER TO SALUTE FLAG AS AN APOLOGY

Complete Acceptance of Demand Comes Within Forty-Eight Hours

SET NO TIME FOR FIRING

No Further Orders Will Be Given to American Fleets Until Details Are Arranged

TO RETURN MEXICAN SALUTE

Washington, April 16.—The United States government tonight accepted General Huerta's offer to salute the stars and stripes as an apology for the arrest of American bluejackets at Tampico a week ago today. The Huerta government's salute to the American flag will be answered by a salute to the tricolor of the Mexican nation.

This arrangement, the details of which were being finally arranged tonight in an exchange of official messages between Washington and Mexico City, ended, in the view of all high administration officials, the crisis that had arisen in the last few days resulting in the dispatch of American war fleets to Mexican waters. Executive quarters and congressional circles breathed a sigh of relief that the tension had passed.

No Time Set For Firing.

No time has been set for the firing of the salute and until the details are arranged no further orders will be sent to the American fleets now proceeding south. It is practically certain however, that while many of the vessels will be turned back others will continue south and a substantially increased naval force will be maintained in Mexican waters.

Huerta's offer and request for a return salute caused President Wilson to ask for an opinion from the secretary of the state department and navy department officials. All reported it was the inviolable custom in naval practice to return a salute and cited precedents. The president also was informed that Rear-Admiral Mayo on making his original demand for a salute agreed to return the courtesy.

Mr. Wilson said the return of a salute under such circumstances did not involve recognition of the Huerta government but was merely an act of the same character as grasping the hand of an individual who was apologizing as he extended it. Secretary Bryan, too, took the view that the American salute would be given to the flag of the Mexican nation, just as much respected by constitutionalists as the Huerta government and no technical recognition was involved.

Is Complete Acceptance.

In less than forty-eight hours after President Wilson had ordered the Atlantic and Pacific fleets to Mexican waters and had informed General Huerta that unless a salute was fired to atone for repeated offenses against the dignity of the United States there would be serious consequences, the answer came—a complete acceptance of the Washington government. Immediately there was a change in the atmosphere of official Washington. As the storm clouds lifted and a wave of official friendship spread through official headquarters, President Wilson arranged to go to White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., for the week-end and Secretary Bryan, who is ill, planned to take his long delayed trip to Miami, Fla. Attention that had been temporarily diverted from the executive program turned again toward the routine of the hour. The numerous happenings which led to the aggressive stand of the American government the strong pressure brought to bear at Mexico City by Charge O'Shaughnessy and the diplomatic representations of other governments, backed by advice from the French and German ambassadors at Washington who learned from the state department the serious intentions of the Washington government, all had brought about a grave international crisis. Congress showed its readiness to stand by the administration and the house committee on foreign affairs passed a resolution upholding the president's position.

Will Continue Neutral.

While the president declared the firing of the salute would close the Tampico incident it will have no particular bearing on the general Mexican policy of the administration. Other offenses such as the arrest of a mail ordered at Vera Cruz have been apologized for and the United States will continue its position of neutrality as between the two factions contending for the military supremacy of the Southern Republic. Incidentally the president, as well as Mr. Bryan, in their conversations on the situation, generally drew attention to official reports they had received praising General Villa and the constitutionalists for their treatment of prisoners and foreigners in the bloody battle at Torreón. Not a foreigner was injured, according to official reports from eye-witnesses.

During executive session late today senators discussed the reported Huerta position informally and it was agreed that United States should not quibble over returning the salute but there were some senators inclined to the view that the advance request from Huerta for a return of the salute should be ignored.

Foreign Governments Active.

Inquiry as to the character of pressure which had been brought on General Huerta to yield brought out the fact that foreign governments had an active interest in the events of the last twenty-four hours. Both the French and German ambassadors, after conferences at the state department were in communication with the United States. It is understood with their representatives in Mexico City. Another phase of the situation was a well authenticated report that the last installment of a loan due Huerta was about to be held up by foreign bankers if he did not comply with the American demands. Charge Algara of the Mexican embassy here was in close touch by cable with General Huerta and every influence was exerted.

Incidentally the dispatch of the war fleets to Mexican waters brought up a discussion of the possibilities in emergencies. Mr. Wilson held that while no one doubted the right of the executive to take immediate steps, such as the landing of marines, or Pacific blockade, or even the bombardment of a coast town, it would be more natural while congress was in session for the president to work in close co-operation with the legislative branch of the government whether he had power or not to take aggressive steps. Discussion of all these measures ended in official circles when it became known that the Huerta government had yielded. Senator Ryono, the Spanish ambassador who was among Secretary Bryan's callers today again pressed the claims for redress of the 700 Spanish subjects expelled by General Villa from Torreón. He had been informed by Secretary Bryan of Carranza's decision to rest upon representations made by the United States in behalf of foreigners in Mexico. But the Madrid government is not satisfied merely with a promise that future claims of Spanish subjects may be made through the United States. It wants a safe return for the Spanish exiles now at El Paso of their former homes in Torreón. Mr. Bryan is continuing negotiations with General Carranza regarding arrangements for the return of all the exiles not held guilty of being active supporters of the Huerta government.

Rebels To Resume Attack.

Juarez, Mexico, April 16.—Peaceful settlement of the Tampico incident presages an early resumption of the rebel attack on that city according to official information received here today. Rebel authorities are still without information as to the whereabouts of the two federal gunboats which recently fled from the port and the attack will be hastened in an endeavor to capture the place before the "fleet" can return. A report from Torreón today said that a federal column was defeated yesterday at Venado, 50 miles north of San Luis Potosí, by a detachment of the troops of General Eulalio Guiterrez, under command of the latter's brother, Colonel Luis Guiterrez.

A special train carrying two million rounds of small arm ammunition six field pieces and a supply of shells will leave here Saturday for the front.

VOLUMINOUS DOCKET OF CASES FACES UTILITIES COMMISSION

Newly Organized Body Destined to Become Important Factor in Ad- justing Differences Between Cor- porations and the People.

Springfield, Ill., April 16.—A voluminous docket of cases presents itself for the consideration of the state utilities commission at the regular session to be held in this city the first three days of next week. Of chief interest is the case of the city of Springfield versus the Springfield Gas & Electric company, in which the city some time ago filed a petition asking for a determination of reasonable gas rates here. It will establish precedents.

Evidence that the newly organized state commission is destined to become an important factor in adjusting differences between the corporations and the people of the state is seen in the large number of cases recently filed in behalf of the general public. On the docket for the forthcoming hearing are many cases for adjustment of telephone rates, for additional train service, depot facilities and the like.

ASSESSORS WILL TAX ALL AUTOS IN HANDS OF DEALERS

New Order of State Auditor Will Result in Considerable Increase in Assessment in Many Counties.

Springfield, Ill., April 16.—State Auditor James J. Brady today sent a statement to tax assessors throughout the state calling their attention to the necessity of listing and assessing all automobiles in the hands of dealers. According to the statement some dealers are not reporting automobiles. "It is doubtful if any of the manufacturers," says the statement of the auditor, "would ship cars to dealers unless at least a partial payment has been made on same. Such automobiles are to be listed and assessed at the place where the agent's business is carried on."

This will result in a considerable increase in the assessment in numerous counties of the state, particularly in Chicago where, it is said, thousands of automobiles in the hands of dealers are not assessed.

CHOATE'S TESTIMONY FAVORS WILSON'S VIEW

FORMER AMBASSADOR TO GREAT BRITAIN IS BEFORE COMMITTEE

Declares Correspondence Between U. S. and Britain During Negotia- tions of Treaty Precludes Idea That American Coast-wise Ship- ping Can Be Exempted.

WEDNESDAY IN CONGRESS.

Senate.

Met at noon. Canals committee continued hearings on the repeal of the Panama tolls exemption. Advocates of Senator Sheppard's resolution for a constitutional amendment for prohibition of voice which she uses most effectively. Her singing showed the grasp she had upon the author's meaning and the tonal quality of her work showed careful training.

House.

Met at noon. Resumed debate on the legislative appropriation bill. Foreign affairs committee adopted a resolution sustaining President Wilson in his action toward Mexico.

Immigration committee heard Commissioner Camarillo on the Hindu exclusion bill. Judiciary committee in session worked on the omnibus trust bill. Delayed final vote on legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill.

Adjourned at 5:32 p. m., until noon tomorrow.

Washington, April 16.—Joseph H. Choate, American ambassador to Great Britain during the negotiation of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty, believes the correspondence with the British government at that time precludes the idea that American coast-wise shipping can be exempted from paying tolls through the Panama canal. Former President Taft, who signed the Panama canal act containing the exemption clause, thought that in doing so he was granting a subsidy to American coast-wise shipping and believes that unless congress reverses itself the United States will have to submit the question to arbitration.

These points, both welcomed by the advocates of repeal, were brought out today at the hearing before the senate committee on inter-oceanic canals. Senator Simmons introduced a transcript of an address delivered by Mr. Taft before the Canadian club at Ottawa last January and Mr. Choate's views were submitted in a letter to Henry Waite, secretary of the American embassy at London while Mr. Choate was ambassador, accompanied by a number of letters addressed by him to Secretary of State Hay, explaining the progress of the negotiations. Mr. Choate wrote that the correspondence "established beyond question the intent of the parties in the negotiations that the treaty should mean exactly what it says and excludes the possibility of the exemption of any kind of vessel of the United States."

"Equality between the United States and Great Britain is the constant theme."

He reviewed the attitude of Lord Lansdowne by saying that "he abrogated the Clayton-Bulwer treaty, gave us an American canal, ours to build as, and where liked, own and control and govern on the sole condition of it being always neutral and free for the passage of the ships of all nations on equal terms except that if we got into a war with any nation we can shut its ships out and take care of ourselves."

Hearings are Concluded.

Hearings on so-called scientific shop management systems were closed today by the industrial relations commission with the testimony of Louis D. Brandeis of Boston. Mr. Brandeis told the commission that if organized labor set itself squarely against the introduction of these systems into industry, instead of demanding a part in them, it would lose the greatest opportunity which has ever presented itself to aid labor.

Hear Prohibition Advocates.

Nation-wide prohibition under an amendment to the federal constitution was advocated before the senate judiciary committee today by prominent figures in the anti-saloon movement throughout the country. The committee was urged to report the Sheppard resolution proposing a prohibition amendment, the witnesses insisting that to allow the state legislatures to pass upon the question would be but justice in view of the strength of the movement among the people.

Miss Nina Slaten, soprano and Miss Helen Jones, contralto, pupils of Mrs. Pierson Hartmann of the College of Music, gave their senior recital Thursday afternoon in Music Hall, before a large audience.

It has been the pleasure of Jacksonville music lovers to hear these young ladies before, but never to better advantage than yesterday. Miss Slaten has a voice of good compass and splendid tones and her interpretation showed musical ability. Miss Jones has a beautiful contralto voice which she uses most effectively. Her singing showed the grasp she had upon the author's meaning and the tonal quality of her work showed careful training.

The numbers selected by the musicians gave them ample opportunity to show the quality of their voices and while there were not many climaxes to the selections, those given were attained with sureness and skill, which was quickly observed by the appreciative audience present. The program opened with a duet, the voices blending beautifully. Miss Deane Obermeyer as accompanist added no little merit to the program which follows: Duet—Night Hymn at Sea—Thomas

BLOODHOUNDS ARE USED IN BURGLARY AT MERRITT

Follow Same Trail Twice—Matter of Issuing Warrants For Arrest of Suspects is Being Considered.

Bloodhounds from Patterson were used in an effort to trace the burglars who broke into the general store of W. D. Hitt at Merritt Tuesday night. The hounds followed the same trail twice and although no arrests have been made as yet, the matter of issuing warrants for two suspects is being considered.

Sometime Tuesday night the front window of the Hitt store was broken and the guilty parties reached through the aperture, shattered the glass in a show case and took a quantity of candy, three buggy whips and several other articles. They did not go into the store, however, and no money was missing.

Mr. Hitt secured the dogs from Patterson Wednesday and from the fact that the guilty parties stood on the sidewalk, and did not enter the store, at first it was thought difficult for the dogs to get a start. Buggy tracks were noticed in front of the store and the dogs secured a scent from the imprint of the horse's foot and followed it. At the edge of town the trail divided, showing that one occupant of the buggy got out, and the two trails were followed. Not satisfied with the first trail the dogs were taken back, and followed the identical trails a second time. Sheriff Coultas of Scott county was in the party that followed the hounds.

This makes the third time that Mr. Hitt's store has been burglarized since last August. The first time only a comparatively small amount was taken, but the second time the robbers escaped with twenty-six pairs of shoes.

Curry of Pisgah, president; Mrs. Walbaum of Ashland, vice-president; and Mrs. A. B. Williamson of Jacksonville, secretary-treasurer.

A duet by Mrs. Shutt and Mrs. Barrows preceded an address on "Chinese in the United States" by Rev. P. H. Aldrich of Waverly and this was followed by a discussion of the following subject: "If you had $500,000 to spend for Missions in China would you put it in evangelistic, educational or medical work?" Mrs. J. H. Kopperl presented the evangelistic side, Mrs. E. O. Mayer the educational and Mrs. A. B. Williamson the medical. The judges were Rev. Mr. Nicholson, Rev. P. H. Aldrich and Mr. Coard and the decision was in favor of the medical side. Mrs. Fred Walbaum gave a solo, which was followed by an address by Miss Burton of Chicago. The afternoon session was closed with a piano duet by Misses Jackson and Pyatt.

After this session an excellent supper was served in the basement of the church under the direction of the following committee: Mrs. Joseph Jackson, chairman; Mrs. Stebbins, Mrs. Joseph Shreve, Mrs. R. C. Hays, Mrs. George Wiswell, Mrs. J. Brown, Mrs. T. O. Hardesty and Mrs. A. B. Williamson.

The evening session was opened at 7:30 o'clock with a hymn and devotional service conducted by Rev. Mr. Nicholson, and Rev. Mr. Aldrich offered prayer. The remainder of the evening program follows:

Vocal solo—Miss Beebe, Illinois (Woman's college, accompanied by Miss Jacobs).

Illustrated lecture, "In and Around Jerusalem"—Mr. S. W. Nichols.

Violin solo—Miss Jensen, Conservatory of Music, accompanied by Miss Cox.

Benediction.
The sessions proved to be most profitable and instructive and the ladies were fortunate in having Miss Burton of Chicago, a foreign missionary, whose remarks were heard with close attention. The illustrated lecture by Mr. Nichols was also most instructive and was thoroughly appreciated.

EMPHASIS ON "INDIVIDUALITY"

That's the new meaning of Fashion—"make the most of your personal points."

Unless your figure is corseted the emphasize its best lines—its most graceful, youthful ones—the smart new gowns are not a success on you.

One corset—the C-B a la Spirite—is designed to mould every woman's figure into the smartest lines required by the new styles.

It accomplishes this by employing softest, most clinging materials, cleverest effects of boning, and skill in construction famous for 40 years and more.

One of the 240 different C-B models is made especially to bring out the individuality in your figure. Examine the new C-B models at our corset department today.

C | B a la Spirite Corset

Not a New Corset, but the Very Newest in Smartness

The reason so many hundreds of thousands of women wear only the C-B a la Spirite Corset is because the C-B in all its models keeps abreast—even a little ahead of Fashion's dictate.

Real Smartness is built into all the new season's C-B models, without changing the characteristics which have made each model a favorite with some particular type of woman.

"Over 240 different types of figure smartly corseted" aptly describes the C-B line.

Examine the new season's C-B models at our corset department today, and see the model especially designed to mould your figure into the newest lines of smartness. C-B prices $1 to $10.

MR. LIPPINCOTT DISCUSSED

GENERAL SCHOOL LAW

Well Known Attorney Addressed Parent-Teacher's Meeting at Second Ward School—Believes Law Has Advantages Over Charter.

The Parent-Teachers Association of the Second Ward held an interesting meeting yesterday afternoon at the Lafayette school. At the request of the Civic League the program was devoted to a discussion of the pending election in regard to changing our school law. A preliminary musical program which was much enjoyed consisted of a violin duet by Frances Leck and Marjorie Black with Miss Ruth Irving at the piano and a vocal solo by Mrs. Hermson.

Mr. J. P. Lippincott had been asked to give those present a general idea as to why a change would take place and why a change in the law seemed advisable. Having served, some years ago, as a member of the Board of Education, from the 4th ward Mr. Lippincott is well versed in school law and also speaks from an entirely disinterested standpoint having no children in school at present and no personal interest in the matter under discussion.

Mr. Lippincott spent most of his time in replying to the arguments of Cadmus which have recently been appearing in the Journal. He said in part:

"Cadmus has made a number of misleading statements. Among others he speaks of the probability of a wholesale dismissal of our present teaching force. I have no power to speak for an incoming board, not yet elected. But from my experience with human nature and as a former member of the Board of Education, I consider this as most unlikely. Nine board members coming in at one time would most of them at least, be entirely unacquainted with the work. They would consider it a great advantage to retain a working force which was acquainted with the work. Men are disposed to be kindly and to be conservative. There would be as little likelihood of change as when new members join the board under our present system. This possibility has been spoken of merely to arouse the teachers and create in them and their friends an antagonism to the general law.

Cadmus also speaks of the increased cost of elections. In his reasoning he is in error. In the number of polling places for board elections may be decreased and expense thereby lessened. Cadmus says under the general law we, the people of Jacksonville must pay into the township treasury $10,000. Opinions differ as to just what this sum would be, but in any case, as a part of the township, Jacksonville would still be entitled to the income from approximately 83 per cent of this sum plus the sum already in the township treasury. To explain further, township funds are distributed according to the number of children in each district. Jacksonville having according to the last school census 6086 children of school age while the country districts have but 489, Jacksonville would receive the income from 93 per cent of the $10,000 (or whatever sum it may be) plus the $1400 now in the township treasury. Under the general law the township trustees would hold the title to school lands and convey such title at the request of the Board of Education. At present the board holds the title. In the past 40 years there have been only two conveyances of such titles, hence this appears to be a minor matter.

Again Cadmus says that whereas now all school tax levies must be passed on by our commission under the general law the board could spend money as it pleased. One is led to infer that the commission acts as a restraining influence upon the expenditures of the board. What are the facts? I recall only two instances when our city council has acted as such a check. Once, when it was in the board, a law was passed requiring the building of fire escapes. The council refused to allow this expenditure (for the Washington school) and the fire escapes had to wait a year. Recently our commissioners have prevented the board spending what they desired on the 8th grade building.

On the other hand—in 1908 our assessed valuation was $2,644,856, according to this we were entitled to a school levy of $64,121.40. That year the board levied $45,000, a sum $18,621.40 in excess of what we were entitled to. The next year they levied $70,000, which was $6,125.66 in excess of what were we entitled to and so on until during the past six years we have spent respectively: In 1908 $ 878.69 In 1909 6,125.34 In 1910 7,992.03 In 1911 5,873.92 In 1912 5,377.93 In 1913 2,437.47

In excess of our current fund.

Where was the restraining hand of our commission?

Under the general law we are allowed 1 1/2 per cent of our assessed valuation for current school expenses. All money for building, buying lots etc., can be levied only by a vote of the people.

Mr. Lippincott also took occasion to answer some of the arguments presented by Mr. Marshall Miller in Thursday evening's Courier. Mr. Miller speaks of the general law as being 42 years old. This merely shows that the people have not wanted it changed. This law is in force in numerous districts in Illinois, and could have been changed at any time if the people so desired. Our charter is also an old charter, but it is not satisfactory—hence we ask for change. Many changes have been made in it and it is hard to know what portions have been repealed or altered. Our unused school (building) fund might have drawn interest at 4 per cent, amounting to $24,000 if our board had known the provisions of the law.

The real point in the whole thing,

Various Speakers Made Arguments in Behalf of the General School Law—Defects in Present Charter Pointed Out—Importance of Giving Attention to Primary Nominations Emphasized.

Under the auspices of the Civic League a mass meeting of men and women was held at the court house last night for a discussion of the relative merits and demerits of the general school law and the Jacksonville school charter. Mrs. J. H. Danskin presided and Mrs. J. R. Wait was the secretary. Dr. J. R. Harker, Dr. Carl E. Black, Andrew Russell and Thomas Worthington made the principal arguments in favor of the general law and Bernard Gause spoke in favor of the charter. The gathering was somewhat informal in character and no opportunity was given to ask questions.

Ward System Evils.

Dr. J. R. Harker said: "As a center of education Jacksonville has always had an enviable reputation. She was founded with that purpose in mind and educational ideals have since been dominant. Because of this preeminence in things educational, this city had a special charter for her schools long before the general school law was adopted. At that early time this step showed us to be in advance of other communities. Since then a general law has been enacted, epitomizing the best thought of educators in this and in other states, and our fixed and rigid charter which was once a mark of progress has proved a drawback and a bar to the highest efficiency."

The reason for this unamendable condition of the charter, Dr. Harker explained, is the fact that by the state constitution all kinds of special legislation are prohibited. A corporate body may either keep or give up a special charter. It can not change it. The general law on the other hand has been modified and improved. It represents progress that has been made in past decades and will be further amended as educational science advances.

Dr. Harker continued with observations upon the evils of ward government. "We have no educational systems in Jacksonville, but four independent systems, rather. The people of each ward elect a board member and he is supposed to represent the interests of their particular school. These men cannot be educational experts and with such a method of election we can not have a unified school system. This situation is fundamentally bad and will always remain so."

Schools and Politics.

Andrew Russell, the second speaker said that our school system under the special charter is hopelessly mixed with politics. "It can not be otherwise. We all are human and we all have axes to grind and so long as we can get what we desire by securing the agreement of three men as human as ourselves, we can expect no better results." Mr. Russell said that the teachers as a whole are either opposed to the adoption of the general law or are apathetic. He thought however that most of them are laboring under a misapprehension and that their fears for the security of their positions are largely unfounded. In a recent conversation with Mr. Blair, the superintendent of public instruction, he ascertained that objections similar to those advanced here have arisen in every city voting on the adoption of the general school law. The finances of the schools would not be under the control of the township trustees, he asserted, after the present trustees have ended their term of office. He does not think that the change of the general law would increase the taxes.

Should Harmonize With State Plan. "Private ownership of public schools," was a phrase used by Dr. Carl E. Black, the third speaker, in characterizing the present system of school management under the special charter. He dwelt upon the unfitness of the ward as the basis of school government and stated that special charters have been discredited on all sides. In summarizing his reasons for supporting the proposed change Dr. Black stated that the state has showed its disapproval by saying that there will be no more such charters granted and that the city of Jacksonville has shown a desire to do away with ward lines by the very act of adopting the commission form. "The adoption of the general law would remove us from our present position of isolation and place us in harmony with the entire school system of Illinois."

Board Control.

The discussion was continued by Thomas Worthington who reviewed some of the arguments previously presented and spoke particularly of the bad effect of politics upon school matters. "With the respect to the present mayor, I will say that a system in which the mayor is the head of the city schools is radically bad. It is not on account of special aptitude for educational questions that the mayor is elected. However good he may be in other respects, he may be an unfit man to cope with school problems. The mayor can have absolute control by getting with him two members of the board and he may do so often by securing the support of but one elected member and one chosen by appointment. When there is a vacancy in the board membership, it is filled by appointment of the council and a man is naturally inclined to show deference to the wishes of those who place him in office."

Following Expert Advice.

Mrs. David Reid who has taken an active interest in the present campaign to secure the general law for Jacksonville and who has devoted considerable time to a serious study of the matter spoke briefly. Mrs. Reid said that it was not claimed that the general law is perfect but that it has the advantage in that whatever defects there may be in the law can be remedied by amendment whereas the character cannot be changed. She said that while the women are actively interested in the present campaign that they do not claim the initiative in the matter but in an effort to better educational conditions in Jacksonville are following the lead of men who can properly be called educational experts.

Mrs. Reid read several sections from the law which had been referred to as representing desirable features. Primary Attendance Important. Bernard Gause the next speaker said that he had voted twice in favor of the general law but after looking into the question more thoroughly this time was convinced that it would be better to remain under the general charter. He said particularly emphasis upon the fact that under the general law three trustees, two of them non residents of Jacksonville would hold the title to all school property. He said too that the basic trouble with the Jacksonville system is that people do not attend the primaries. Mr. Gause said further:

"We want the poor boy and girl whose education ends with these schools to be better able to face the problems of life with intelligence and hope. So for this reason their management should be as near ideal schools and you cannot accomplish this and you must secure for members of our school board men and women of high principle and superior intelligence willing to make this sacrifice for the good of a coming generation. The only hope to be able to do this lies solely in your attendance at your primaries. This is my conclusion of a real effective remedy for the betterment of our schools and your cannot accomplish this by changing a law. Go regularly to the primaries and vote for qualified persons to fill these positions and the present will be found good enough."

Various Questions Presented. Mrs. W. S. Badger when called upon said that she would not make any address after so many arguments had been presented. It occurred to her however, as significant that in seeking to change to the general law that the women were following the advice of men thoroughly versed in educational affairs while those opposing the project have no special knowledge along this line.

Mrs. Thomas Worthington compared the school management of Jacksonville where four men are entrusted with all the work, with that of Illinois colleges where various duties are delegated to various committees. Her point was that the work expected from four men under the charter was too much. John M. Butler suggested that the general law would give to a superintendent no more power than is his under the charter. The amount of power a superintendent has is a question the board settles. He said that while each ward elects a member of the board now there is nothing in the charter to prevent the four from working as a unit and not as the special representatives of the various wards.

H. J. Rodgers maintained that the matter of trustee ownership of the schools would have nothing to do with actual management. Mr. Russell read several sections from the law which were under discussion and Prof. J. H. Rayhill spoke briefly. The meeting then adjourned.

MASS MEETING TONIGHT. A mass meeting under the auspices of the Civic League will be held tonight at Bethel A. M. E. church. Everybody will be welcome.

TEMPLE ENCAMPMENT HAS MEETING AND PROGRAM.

The regular meeting Thursday evening of Temple Encampment No. 19 at the I. O. O. F. Temple on East State street was followed by an oyster supper and literary program at which the main feature was the rendition of the play "Fun in a Theatrical Office," given a short time ago before the Rebekahs and repeated especially for the members of the encampment. The play was excellently staged and was concluded by a chorus by the entire company. A humorous reading entitled "Freddie" was given by Miss Esther Spoons in her usual inimitable manner. The chairman of the evening was F. E. McDougall and the committee in charge consisted of F. E. McDougall, J. W. Baptist, H. L. Couchman, John Shaddid and L. D. Caywood.

Cascarets work while you sleep; cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested, fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poison in the bowels.

BEARDSTOWN WANTS TRACK MEET NEXT YEAR

Supt. Russell May Ask Western Illinois High School League to Hold 1915 Meet in River Town.

The work of providing a suitable athletic field, enclosed with a suitable fence and equipped with grandstand and comprising a baseball diamond, foot ball gridiron, basket ball field, racing track, etc., will be pushed forward as rapidly as possible under the supervision of Supt. H. G. Russell, in order that he may feel safe in extending an invitation to the Western Illinois High School League to hold the 1915 Athletic and Declamatory meet in Beardstown, says the Illinoisian Star.

The meet occurs annually during the first week of May and for many years has been held in Jacksonville, chiefly because no other city in the circuit was in shape to take care of the crowd or could offer a suitable field or park. When Beardstown has completed its park it will insist that the next league meeting come to this city.

Mayor Keil and the members of the Building and Grounds committee of the city council, in company with Supt. Russell made an inspection of that part of the city farm which is to be converted into a park, laying off the ground and designating in a general way the plan for the improvement. The city has granted the High school free use of the ground and about six acres will be included in the reserved space.

The advocates of the general school law make a strong point that there are but 38 school districts in the state under special charters while there are over 11,000 districts that are under the general school law. They point to these figures in an effort to show how unpopular are the special charters. These 11,000 districts consist almost entirely of small villages and country school districts for which the general school law is well fitted. Nearly all of the large and important cities of the state have special charters which they hold on to and hardly ever consider giving them up. Such cities as Alton, Bloomington, Canton, Decatur, Galena, Galesburg, Joliet, Kankakee, Macomb, Paris, Pekin, Peoria, Rockford, Rock Island, and Waukegan are included in the list. The cities that have special charters have a population of almost a half million people. Chicago should properly be classed as a city having a special charter as no city can take up that part of the general law that governs Chicago until it reaches a population of 100,000 people. All legislation for that part of the general school law pertaining to cities of 100,000 or more, is prepared to meet Chicago only as it is the only city in the state with that number of people. Should Chicago be classed as a city with a special charter, for it should be so classed, the population of such cities would reach two and one half million—almost one half that of the state.

Should a vacancy occur on the school board in any city governed by the general school law, by removal, death or otherwise, it would be required of the school board to call a special election at once to fill such vacancy. Should Jacksonville adopt the general law, and ever have occasion to call a special election to fill a vacancy on the board, sixteen polling places will have to be provided with judges and clerks, under the new arrangement proposed by the city in its re-districting, because of the increased voting population. Such conditions are likely to happen frequently with a president and nine members of a school board. More elections and more expenses with accompanying confusion.

TAXES IN STRAWN ESTATE TO BE PAID BY ADMINISTRATOR

Order Authorizing Payment Entered by Judge Brockhouse Thursday.—Personal and Realty Taxes and Assessments Amount to About $4000.

In the probate court Thursday Gates Strawn, as administrator of the estate of Julius E. Strawn, made through Kirby, Wilson and Baldwin, as attorneys, granted authority for the payment of taxes now due. The administrator has authority to pay taxes and assessments as follows:

On 1137½ acres of land in Morgan county, $763.95. On Lot 8 in Block 12 of the City Add. to Jacksonville, $37.84; an assessment of $242.85 for the payment on East Court street, $262.85 taxes on 2-3 West College avenue; $313.93 special assessment against the same property.

The personal taxes which administrator has authority to pay are $2,535.28. It is shown in the petition that all the taxes mentioned are now delinquent; that the heirs at law of Julius E. Strawn, deceased, are 34 in number and scattered throughout various states; that no one of them are looking after the taxes on the real estate; and that it is for the best interests of all the heirs that the petition be authorized to pay the taxes on the real and personal estate and also the special assessment before the 1st day of May next. It is stated also that the day fixed by the court for the allowance of claims against the estate is the first Monday in June and that if the taxes remain unpaid until that time that interest will be charged from the 1st of May and additional costs would be likely to accrue because of the delinquency.

THE SUNDAY SHOOT

Tuesday mornings Journal published an objection to the Sunday trap shooting, at the Widenham & Dault wells, signed by "A Resident." They should have signed it a narrow minded dictator of other people's pleasures. The participants of this affair are laboring men, who are tied to a job six days in the week and desire a little sport. It is not the value of the land that leads you to write such an article, Mr. Resident, as clay pigeons are not a detriment to soil, because they melt in water. It is merely your views of Sunday. Capital, dictates to the laboring man six days in every week and there are a few narrow minded people, who desire to dictate the seventh. Life was once represented by a tall ladder upon which four men stood. At the top a minister preaching to the people. Next a lawyer looking after their legal affairs. Third, an actor amusing them and at the bottom a working man holding up the ladder.

Now, Mr. Resident, if you are not at the bottom of the ladder don't dictate too much to the man who holds you up and if you are a working man, respect another man's views in the matter of a Sunday afternoon's pleasure.

The Car That Stays New

Nobody doubts that Reo the Fifth is the best-built car in its class. It embodies all Mr. Olds' extremes, based on 27 years of car building.

It takes six weeks to build each car, because of the utter exactness, the countless tests and inspections.

The steel is twice analyzed. The gears are tested for 75,000 pounds per tooth, the springs for 100,000 vibrations.

The car has 15 roller bearings, 190 drop forgings. It has a costly clutch which prohibits all gear clashing. It has the simplest gear-shift in the world.

All driving parts are built one-half stronger than necessary—built to meet the requirements of a 50-horsepower engine.

10,000-MILE TESTS.

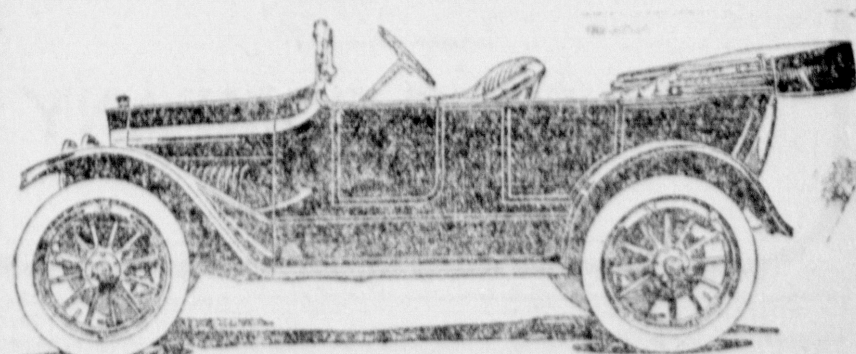

Test cars with this chassis have for years been kept running at high speed night and day on rough roads. After 10,000 miles of reckless driving the test car is taken apart, and every driving part is required to show up in almost perfect condition.

No other modest-price car has ever been built in this slow, careful, costly way. But the result is a car that stays new. It saves the average user hundreds of dollars in troubles, repairs and upkeep.

Men who know are buying cars like this. The spring demand is always twice the factory output. March sales have broken every record.

We urge men who may want this honest car to come and see it now.

Men Pay Homage to Mother's Friend

"I am not surprised to observe the number of men who come into the store to purchase 'Mother's Friend,'" remarked a leading druggist.

The expectant mother if she has heard of this splendid embrocation probably not reading the papers to much extent. And if she does it is a happy thought to send hubby to the drug store. "Mother's Friend" is applied externally over the abdominal muscles.

It is a gentle, soothing lubricant, penetrates to the fine network of nerves beneath the skin and has a marked tendency to relieve the muscular strain to which these broad, flat abdominal muscles are subjected. The cords, tendons and ligaments are thus permitted to stretch without the corresponding surface strain so often involved during the period of expectation. This in part accounts for the entire absence, in many cases reported, of nausea, morning sickness and other distresses. And particularly to young mothers is this remedial application of inestimable value since in thus keeping the muscles firm but pliant it enables them to go through the ordeal without laceration of the epidermis so often the case when this gentle form of lubrication is neglected.

"Mother's Friend" is highly recommended by a host of women. Write Bradford Regulator Co., 508 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., and we will send you a valuable little book to expectant mothers.

The effect of this splendid external application is an expression of the thousands of women who have successfully used it and recommended it through two generations.

Take Soda for Acid Stomach or Indigestion—Try It

Indigestion, says a noted authority, is not caused by a lack of digestive juices, but by an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach which promotes food fermentation thus retarding digestion. Then our meals sour in the stomach and bowels like garbage sours in a can, forming acid fluids and gases which inflame the stomach like a toy balloon, then we get that heavy, lumpy feeling in the chest; we eructate food, belch gas and have heartburn, flatulence, water-brash and nausea.

He tells us that to instantly neutralize these stomach acids and stop food fermentation we must get a package of 10 grain Sodagen tablets at any pharmacy and take one tablet anytime followed by a tumbler of water which immediately settles the stomach; absorbs the gases and sweetens the entire digestive system.

He states that men and women who can trace their disordered stomachs and indigestion to acidity should not hesitate to take this harmless antacid at any time, as it is simply a compound of Soda, Magnesia and Calcium Carbonate U. S. P.—Adv.

AGRICULTURAL STATES CONFRONTED WITH THE PROBLEM OF ABSENTEE LANDLORDISM

Charles W. Holman of University of Wisconsin Declares That Within Few Years the Land Question Will Be A National Political Issue.

Chicago, April 16.—"Two and a quarter million tenant farmers in the twenty-five states that produce most of the perishable farm products, the grain, and the cotton of America, make the organizing and federating of farmers for business like marketing a stupendous, if not an almost impossible undertaking," Charles W. Holman of the University of Wisconsin, secretary of the second national conference on marketing and farm credits, made this statement in an address here this afternoon before that organization and the Western Economic society.

"The richest and most productive of American states are today confronting a problem of absentee landlordism that bids fair in the near future to be the all engrossing task of statesmen and economists," he said. "Within a few years the land question will be a national political issue. It has already become a matter of the gravest concern. This very year, in the state of Texas, which alone has about 225,000 tenant farmers, enough to control the elections in that state if they were properly organized, people are alarmed over the imminence of a tenant revolt."

Percentage of Tenants Larger.
When we remember that in the United States in 1910 there were 2,354,676 tenants and these 25 states furnished 2,188,586 of them, we have a very grave problem. The percentage of tenant farmers in the United States increased from 25.6 in 1880 to 37 per cent in 1910.

In the majority of cases the tenant farmer is the left over man of progress. His business ability and his intelligence are not so great as that of his more prosperous neighbor who owns a farm.

He lives in a shack, this tenant farmer of the south, in an unpainted, unsanitary, miserable shack. Ignorance and poverty force him to sad and soggy existence, and his little children labor in the fields with small hope of the future. The whole family toils; and when the year is over they survey their hopeless situation, load their goods into a covered wagon, tie the cow to the back of the wagon and drive to another country to try their indifferent luck. And who can blame them? The family has lived through the year on less than $90 apiece.

Menace to Agricultural Prosperity
But this great mass of sniffling tenantry constitutes a menace to agricultural prosperity and no device has yet been found that will organize them for business like marketing of their products and keep their organs fed. Yet their very helplessness and unorganized state complicates the marketing problem. The harpies of "the trade" take advantage of them and there is constantly the danger of vast body of products being dumped upon the markets already congested.

We have been taught to believe in the landlord as the ruling class, whose duty it is to help solve these problems; but the landlord is doing practically nothing except to raise the rent on every possible occasion. And in the south the condition is one of exploitation by the landlord and vicarious suffering for the tenant. That much of this exploitation is unconscious does not in the least change the situation; for the landlord is in control.

Conditions in Texas are Bad.
Conditions in Texas have caused a rural revolution; and that renters' petition to Governor Colquitt was but a sporadic fire of the deeper discontent. For one, I believe that between the absentee landlord, wherever he may be, and the absentee stockholder of the Lawrence cotton mills there is no great difference; and between the overworked, underpaid foreign population who manned the Lawrence mills and the poverty stricken anaemic tenants of the south there is a parallel.

It is here we may sense the great humanitarian mission of the farmer's marketing movement—to make it possible for the tenant population to produce a fair product and receive for it a fair price.

What, you will say, should be the incentive for farmers? It is the non-profit making corporation, a form of corporation that gives the growers the three fundamentals of power—(1) the power to manufacture, (2) to sell, and (3) to buy any product connected with or necessary in the carrying on of a legitimate business enterprise. The only two states to my knowledge that have these laws are the states I have mentioned.

The first thing that we must do in a national campaign such as is contemplated by this organization today is to make it possible for growers to have a state to organize with the power of protecting their own interests by such action as I have here described.

The non-profit making corporation should in no sense be interpreted as a monopoly or an organization in restraint of trade.

The co-operative corporation offers no incentive to the speculator; provides automatically for the buying of stock and the taking up of stock; is non-exclusive in that it will take in any member; cannot restrain trade, because in a perishable fruit industry the stuff must sell, and sell fast; allows farmers the most satisfactory way of transacting their affairs by either the one man, one vote, or the acreage vote basis. It finances its operations by levying upon the packages as they move; adds a new element of credit to the community by giving the co-operative, corporation the power to borrow money upon the joint security of all the land represented in the organization; adds to the community wealth because of the greater profits that come through such an organization; does not try to fix the prices of products, but seeks an even distribution to avoid glutting any market and to prevent an overstocking of all markets; and even has the somewhat doubtful benefit of raising land values.

Machinery for Marketing Products.
In these ways the co-operative corporation creates and makes permanent machinery for marketing the products of a community. It is truly a community servant and constitutes a permanent community property irrespective of who owns the land represented in the corporation; and in a typical agricultural community it will have the same relation to the people in economic service that the school plant has for educational and social service.

But whatever form of organization the growers of one district may take, they must begin by developing for themselves credit. Their organization must stand for something in the commercial world. It must have a rating. Its credit must be good or it cannot succeed. The products which it sells must have a name for quality.

Question of Standardization.
The question of standardization goes to the whole root of farmers' selling problems. You must inspect. You must put that authority into the hands of the board of directors of your selling organizations. You must tie yourselves up into an iron clasp that you will not violate either the word or the spirit of your agreement. You must start your standardizing in the field and orchard by learning to grow, and to pick in such a way that the damage to the fruit will be reduced to a minimum.

And right there is one of the big things in this business of the farmer. It is the learning to handle our product at a minimum waste.

And so we should put into this democratic concern which we call our co-operative corporation the power to make the farmers farm right.

The growers in sections that have interests in common must district their associations and form central selling agencies with capital and power sufficient to track out the undeveloped markets, and to keep in formed upon the trade conditions in those that are already discovered.

The coming of the large organizations into the marketing of these products will make the selling problem relatively small.

Industry must go on. We have no possibility of reverting to the conditions of a generation ago. The trend of the farmers' co-operative movement toward central distributing agencies is inevitable.

AFTER SICKNESS
Mrs. Gardner Tells How to Restore One's Strength.
So many people are asking how to recover their strength after severe sickness that we are publishing this information for their benefit.

After grippe, pleurisy, pneumonia or any illness what you need is new strength and better blood.

The most certain way to get this is by taking Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron preparation.

Mrs. M. T. Gardner, Chicago, Ill., says: "After a very serious operation I was a total invalid for nearly a year and a convalescent for months thereafter. I gave the remedies of a number of eminent specialists a thorough trial, but without deriving the slightest benefit. Vinol was recommended. Without the least faith in the merits of the medicine, I took it faithfully, and it seemed to bring back the old color to my cheeks and the elasticity to my step which I had despaired of ever recovering. I can say, conscientiously that for nervous, run-down people, Vinol is an excellent remedy."

Try a bottle of Vinol. Your money will be returned if it does not restore your vitality and strength. Lee P. Albott, Druggist, Jacksonville, Ill. P. S. If you have Eczema try our Saxo Salve. We guarantee it.—adv.

The Clean Up and Paint Up Campaign

Is fast becoming a "Nation Wide Movement," and rightly too, for it "Promotes Cleanliness, Thrift and Civic Pride" without which no community can hope to prosper, as we spend the greater portion of our lives in our homes they should be made as attractive as possible. The humble cottage when well painted, with lawn properly cared for and surroundings clean and neat, is as attractive and more homelike than the mansion.

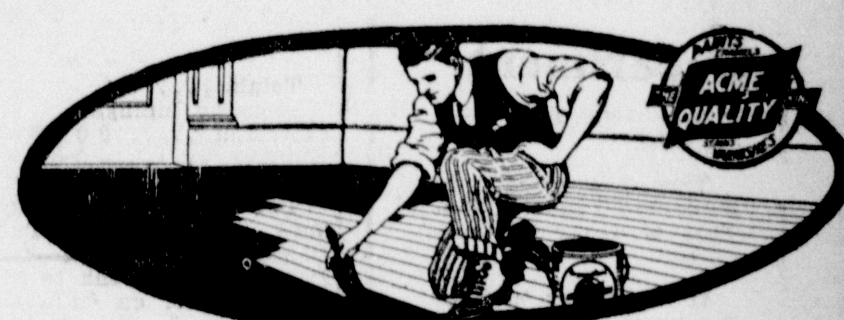

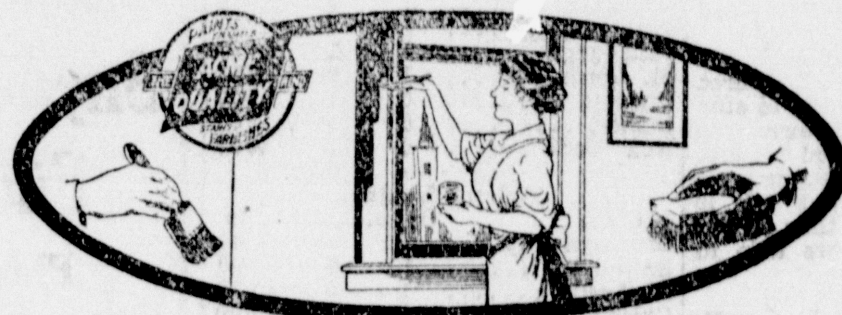

One Hundred Million Dollars Lost Every Year Through Lack of Painting

A lot of money to be wasted, yet this is a conservative estimate of the sum that is lost in this country every year, due to pure carelessness and neglect.

Our Enormous Paint Stock

Is at your command and we shall aim to meet your every wish—it matters not whether you want 50c worth of Water Paint for your back fence or $50 worth of Paint for your house and barn, our service shall be just as efficient in either case.

Every gallon of paint, every barrel of oil, every pound of lead or material and every brush in our stock is the best that money and brains can produce. Not how cheap but how good is the only policy to follow for the seller and user.

Really Good Paint Costs Nothing

Because it adds more value than it costs. A house well painted and attractive will sell for much more than an unpainted dilapidated building.

Dig the Garden, Sow the Lawn Do It Now—Hours Count

If garden making begins with sowing Landreth's seeds and soil, temperature and planting conditions are right you are sure of success.

Every home should have a well kept lawn and a good garden. There is nothing like fresh vegetables right out your own garden, and the little time and money you spend on a garden will yield big returns in health, happiness and good things to eat.

Our big stock of fresh bulk garden and grass seed is complete—just call or 'phone.

Garden Tools and Plows

We have about everything you could think of even a line of Jersey Truck Gardeners Hoes. We will name just a few items—Garden Hoes, Rakes, Spading Forks, Spades, Garden Tool Sets, both small and large.

Don't fail to see our Spading Fork for Ladies and boys. Our Favorite Garden Plow is the best.

Game is Battle Between Joe Benz
and Fred Blanding With Joe Showing the Better Form, Keeping the Four Hits Which He Allowed
Well Scattered.

Chicago, April 16.—Joe Benz' clever pitching, with punched hits by his teammates, enabled the Chicago Americans to shutout Cleveland here today 1 to 0 and win their third straight game from the visitors. The game was a pitchers' contest between Benz and Blanding, with the former showing the better form. Three times the visitors threatened to score but Benz, tightened up and spiced their chances, twice retiring Jackson and Lajoie with one out and a man on base. He allowed the same number of hits as his opponent, four but all were scattered.

RITCHIE AND MURPHY IN GOOD TRIM.

San Francisco, Cal., April 16.—Unless there is an eleven-hour postponement the twenty-round battle between Lightweight Champion Willie Ritchie and Harlem Tommy Murphy will be pulled off here tomorrow night. For months the match between these two has been hanging fire. Several times the date for the fight has been fixed, only to be set back for some cause or another until the two fighters were almost ready to enter the ring.

Murphy is impatient for the fight to begin. Since the days of Joe Gans the Harlem boy has been engaged in the pursuit of the lightweight titleholders. His ring record is one of the longest and most creditable of any of the present day fighters. But despite his record and his best endeavors he has never before been given an opportunity to battle for the championship. Ever since he signed up for the present match with Ritchie he has been training faithfully for the contest and he appears to be in the best possible condition.

Reports from the Ritchie camp say the champion also is as fit as a fiddle and confident of retaining his crown. If he is successful in his bout with Murphy tomorrow night Ritchie says he will make things hum among the lightweights who think they are champions. Freddie Welsh will probably be the first fighter he will take on.

The sale of seats for the Ritchie-Murphy fight indicates that one of the largest crowds for many months will see the battle.

WHO IS YOUR TAILOR?

Every man in America has a tailor. The man who wears a $10 suit, as well as the man who pays $100. The important question is, "Does your tailor know you?" Is he capable of designing a suit for you individually? Can he put your own personality into your garments? Build it so it will express you; look like you; actually be you; or does he make the same suit for everybody?

Do you care how you appear to other people? Does it matter to you if your coat bunches on the shoulders, creeps up on your neck when you sit, wrinkles in the back or sets away from the collar? Do your trousers draw? Are they too wide or too narrow in the thighs and leg to suit your build? All these faults are not necessary, and are overcome when your garment is designed and tailored by one who knows you and studies your individual requirements. It costs no more to own a tailored-to-measure suit which will have none of these objectionable things. You can get harmony in color and fabric, style, snap, fashion and design, and comfort in the fit and wear of every suit we make for you.

You can't get a bad job from us. We won't let you have it.

Are Your Glasses Becoming?

You don't want awkward "all eyeglasses" looking glasses.

We have made a study of facial characteristics, and select the size, style and shape of eyeglasses most becoming to the face of the wearer. There is a "knack and know how" about proper eyeglass fitting and adjusting, that we have long ago discovered.

With the glasses we make, you look well from either side.

WILL MAKE FINAL EFFORT TO SAVE LIFE OF LEO FRANK

Evidence Collected By Detective Burns Will Be Presented to the Supreme Court.

Atlanta, Ga., April 16.—With the date fixed for the execution of Leo M. Frank but one day off, the public interest in the case has reached fever heat. The attorneys for the convicted young man will play their final card tomorrow, when they will appear before the state supreme court and present an extraordinary motion for a new trial. It is expected that the new evidence gathered by William J. Burns, and which the famous detective claims is of so important a character that it cannot be ignored by the court, will then be disclosed for the first time.

Whatever may be the strength and character of the new evidence upon which the plea for the new trial will be based, there is a general feeling in Atlanta today that Frank will not be executed Friday. Furthermore, the opinion is widespread that he will never go to the gallows. The basis for this opinion is probably due almost wholly to the campaign of publicity that has been waged in behalf of the young man. In the entire history of American courts there have been few if any cases in which a more vigorous effort has been made to save a person convicted of murder.

Not the least interesting feature of the Frank case is the remarkable turnabout that public sentiment has undergone in regards to the case. When, on August 25 last, the jury returned a verdict finding Frank guilty of the murder of little Mary Phagan, the large crowd that had assembled outside the court house received the news with noisy demonstrations. The verdict was greeted with cheering and long mounted policemen rode through the crowd in an effort to disperse it, but the demonstrations continued unabated.

So far as the general public is aware there has been no new or important development in the Frank case since the verdict of guilty was returned. The evidence upon which the young man was convicted has not been upset in any important particular. Yet public sentiment seems to have undergone a complete change and there is little doubt that any announcement of court action favorable to the convicted man would now be greeted with as much enthusiasm as that displayed when the verdict of guilty was announced eight months ago.

It will be one year on the 27th of this month since the body of 14-year old Mary Phagan was found in the basement of the pencil factory where she was employed. Frank was the superintendent of the factory. Up to the time of the tragedy he had enjoyed an excellent reputation. His home originally was in Brooklyn, where his parents still reside. Prior to coming to Atlanta he had been employed for a time in Boston. He was a member of several leading Jewish societies and was looked upon by his friends as a capable young man of business.

Crimes against women had been alarmingly frequent in Atlanta and vicinity for a considerable period prior to the murder of the Phagan girl. When her body was found bearing evidence that she had been attacked public feeling reached a high pitch. The police department naturally came in for severe criticism and this is one of the facts upon which emphasis is laid by those who are endeavoring to free Frank. The allegation is made that the police action in order to avoid criticism and that Frank was arrested in consequence. Charges have been openly made, moreover, that his conviction was brought about by framed-up testimony.

Frank's trial occurred July 28 last. The only direct testimony against him was given by James Conley, a negro employed about the pencil factory. Conley swore that he had stood guard outside the factory office while Frank was alone with the Phagan girl and later helped Frank carry the body to the basement where it was found. The negro also charged Frank with degeneracy. Late in the trial the defendant made a statement denying all knowledge of the crime.

Eastern and Western Leaders Against President In Tolls Fight.

CHAMBERLAIN.

O'GORMAN.

The battle in the United States senate over the repeal of the Panama canal free tolls law is progressing with evidence of extreme bitterness on each side. Charges and countercharges are made as to the actuating motives of those for or against the repeal. President Wilson's chief opponents in the upper house are Senators James A. O'Gorman of New York, former supreme court judge, and G. E. Chamberlain of Oregon, a Portland lawyer. Both of these senators are Democrats.

"GENERAL" COXEY'S BIRTHDAY.

Massillon, Ohio, April 16.—"General" Jacob S. Coxey, who 20 years ago attracted the attention of the entire country by leading an "army" of unemployed on Washington, celebrated his 60th birthday anniversary at his home here today. The "general" is busy with preparations for his second march on the national capital. He declares that the country is now in a more deplorable plight than it was in 1894 and that a demonstration of one million unemployed men in an invasion of the national capital is necessary to arouse congress to a sense of duty, or in other words, to enact such laws as the "general" believes will relieve the industrial depression and better the condition of the working classes. Mr. Coxey hoped to get his

"army" under way today, but the difficulty of finding capable lieutenants and several other obstacles have made a postponement necessary. He declares that many "recruits" are reporting daily and that he expects to start for Washington with a force of many thousands before the middle of May.

NOTABLE WEDDING IN HISTORIC HOUSE.

Fairfax Courthouse, Va., April 16.—In the paragon of Zion Episcopal church, where half a century ago Brig. Gen. Stoughton of the Union army was surprised and captured by Mosby and his men and where several other stirring events were enacted during the civil war, Miss Elizabeth Berwell Page, daughter of the Rev. Frank Page and a niece of Thomas Nelson Page, the well known novelist and the present United States ambassador to Italy was married today to Norman Gaynor, son of the late Mayor William J. Gaynor of New York city.

The ceremony was performed by the father of the bride in the presence of a small gathering of relatives and intimate friends of the couple. Miss Tillie Page, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Jonathan Grout, son of former Controller Grout of New York, was best man. After spending a few days at Atlantic City, Mr. Gaynor and his bride will sail from New York April 21 for a Mediterranean trip. During their stay abroad they will visit Ambassador and Mrs. Page in Rome.

DUCKS UNUSUALLY TAME.

While driving in the Mississippi river bottom, south of New Canton, recently, a local business man had occasion to notice a great change in the attitude of wild ducks toward passerby this spring. At one place there were hundreds of ducks within gunshot range of the wagon road and a number of the fowl walked within twenty steps of the wagon. They did not offer to fly when the men pounded on the side of the wagon and yelled at them, and the men attributed this to the new law which prohibits spring duck shooting.

PRAIRIE UNION SCHOOL CLOSED.

Miss Jessie Allen closed a successful term of school at Prairie Union Wednesday. To show the appreciation of her teaching the patrons and friends of the school came at noon with well filled baskets and a table was spread which fairly groaned beneath its heavy load. After all had done justice to the many good things to eat, the children enjoyed themselves upon the play ground until 2:30 p. m. The teacher then called the school to order and the scholars entertained their guests with a fine program. The good behavior and the well trained minds of the children showed the efficiency of the teacher in charge. After the program, all started for their homes feeling that the day had been well spent and with a hope that they would have Miss Allen for a teacher another year.

OFFICIAL INSTRUCTIONS FOR CLEAN-UP WEEK

All Rubbish Will Be Carted Away Free at Time Signified.—Prizes Will Be Offered For Camera Pictures and Other Things.

Clean-up week for Jacksonville is in the hands of a committee composed of Charles Knollenberg, chairman, William Newman, O. H. Spaulding, Mrs. Thomas Worthington, Paul Fritchey, Mrs. Louis Engel, first ward; Miss Fairbank in the second ward; Mrs. T. H. Buckhorpe, third ward, and Mrs. John Cherry in the fourth ward. The officials of the week have given out the following instructions:

"During the week of April 20th to 26th every citizen is expected to clean up their premises, be it their house, yard or alley. Non-residents, who own vacant lots or houses, will be expected to have the real estate men or their business representatives living in the city, see that their property is properly cleaned up. Inspection and camera pictures will be made during the week. All improvements made during the week.

Plan for Carrying Off Rubbish.
"The city cannot afford this year to pay for the cartage of all the people's rubbish. The Clean-up Committee has substituted the following co-operative plan so that all rubbish in the city can be systematically hauled off at a minimum cost. All tin cans and rubbish which are absolutely unburnable should be placed in boxes or some kind of a receptacle in the street by Tuesday, April 21, on which day wagons will go through each ward. Rubbish put out after this date must be hauled off at the individual's expense.

Notice has been formerly given of the places where rubbish can be hauled. The dumping ground offered by W. H. Cocking, on Finlay street and Wabash K. R. cannot be reached from Finlay street, but the wagons must reach the lot via Webster avenue.

The hauling expense will be defrayed by a popular cash subscription which will be collected by the chairmen and workers in the various wards. Everybody must be willing to pay in proportion to their ability as it will require about $50.00 to clean up each ward. This arrangement is found necessary in order to help all families to clean up. The names of all public spirited donors will be published in the papers.

Prizes will be offered as follows:

Showing best improvements, $5.00 for best camera picture taken before and after clean up.

$2.00 to school child for best clean up of vacant lot.

$2.00 to school room, the children of which clean up the largest amount of vacant lots.

Entry cards will be in the hands of each school teacher in all the wards.

$25.00 REWARD.

For information leading to the arrest of persons who throw at or break electric light bulbs in use on streets.

George P. Davis, Chief of Police.

WATER COMPANY PROPERTY SOLD UNDER FORECLOSURE.

The property of the Jacksonville Water Company, located at Bluffs, was sold by Master in Chancery Walter McClellan Allen under a decree of the Federal Court and was bid in by Joseph Riesenman of Franklin, Pa. The proceedings which resulted in the sale were brought by O. D. Bleakly, trustee, and the primary purpose was to settle up some matters between various stockholders of the company. The sale is in part dependent upon the final ruling of the appellate court relative to the decree of sale rendered in the Morgan county circuit court in the suit brought to enforce a mechanics lien in which the Aberneth Manufacturing Co. and the Builders Iron Foundry Co. were the complainants.

SPRINGFIELD LOSES DEBATE TO J. H. S.

JACKSONVILLE WINS AT HOME;
LOSES AT QUINCY.

Triangular Debate on Minimum Wage Results in One Victory and One Defeat for Local Teams—Quincy Loses to Springfield by 2 to 1.

Jacksonville won the debate with Springfield H. S., which was held Thursday evening in the local high school auditorium and the same evening lost to Quincy high school at Quincy by an unanimous decision. Two judges decided for and one against Jacksonville in the contest here. The debate between Quincy and Springfield was won by the latter school 2 to 1. The winning team against Springfield was Robert Nemeth, Miss Ruth Chipchase and Harlan Williamson and the Springfield debaters were Arthur Utt, Miss Caroline Taylor and John Reinboth. According to a dispatch late Thursday evening from Quincy, the team from that city will meet the Moline High school for the championship of the state next June.

The question for debate was "Resolved, That the policy of fixing a minimum wage by the state boards is desirable." Each of the affirmative teams remained at home and the negative teams debated the question before a foreign school. The affirmatives won in each of the three debates held Thursday night.

At Quincy the negative was upheld by Ordman Fox, Miss Gladys Uzzell and Sol Weber. The judges were Dr. Conger of Knox College, Prof. Derr of Carthage and Mr. Warrath of Macomb Normal. Their decision was unanimous for the Quincy team. The Springfield team won in their home city in a close contest. After the debate a dance and reception was held for the Quincy visitors.

The program at the Jacksonville high school was begun with music by the Ensemble club. Both sides put up good argument in the main speeches, but the weakening of Springfield was especially apparent in the rebuttal. The judges here were the Rev. W. M. Tobie of Lincoln, Ill., H. T. White, superintendent of schools, Carlinville and Prof. F. M. Austin of Wesleyan university, Bloomington. The presiding officers were Prof. J. G. Ames of Illinois college, Kennett Berryman, representing the high school and Hansel Wilson of Illinois college and a Springfield high school graduate.

After the debate the girls of the domestic science department gave a banquet in honor of the visitors in their class room. There were sixteen present, including the members of the respective teams, the officers of the literary societies, the debating teams, the officers of the evening and members of the faculty. Dr. Ames of Illinois college presided at the banquet. The menu served by the domestic science girls was a very palatable one and was greatly enjoyed. It included cream tomato soup, water and olives, potatoes, green peas, fruit salad, cheese straws, coffee, ice cream and cake and was served in three courses. The Springfield representatives were outspoken in their appreciation of the hospitality of the Jacksonville students.

LARGE NUMBER ATTENDS FUNERAL OF ABRAM WOOD

Services at Late Residence Thursday Afternoon Are Conducted by Rev. F. A. McCarty—Interment is Made in Jacksonville Cemetery.

A large number of relatives and friends attended the funeral of Abram Wood, which was held at the late residence, 363 West College street, Thursday afternoon. Out of respect for the deceased the high school and eighth grade was dismissed early in the afternoon and a number of pupils attended the services.

The services were conducted by Dr. F. A. McCarty and Rev. J. W. Miller, pastor of Grace M. E. church, read from the scriptures and offered prayer. Music was furnished by a quartet composed of Miss Stella Shuff, Miss Lena Hopper, Henry Pinkerton and E. A. Hearn, who sang "Rock of Ages", "Abide With Me", and "Asleep in Jesus." There was an abundance of beautiful flowers, which were cared for by Mrs. W. W. Cox, Mrs. W. D. Doying and Mr. and Mrs. Atteberry.

Interment was made in Jacksonville cemetery and the commitment services were in charge of Hospital-ier Commandery, Knights Templar, Julius Strawn acting as prelate and Dr. R. R. Buckthorpe as commander. The bearers were Charles Rabjohn, Frank Kitner, Dr. L. H. Clapp, J. W. Taylor, Ralph Dunlap and R. T. Cassell.

In his address Dr. McCarty said: "We are here today because we loved Abram Wood. Each one has his own reason for honoring and loving him and would pay his own tribute. Doubtless no tribute is more fitting, or would be more pleasing to our brother, than to say 'he faithfully served his own generation.' Hence I have chosen as a text: Acts 13:36; 'For David after he had served his own generation, by the will of God, fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers.'"

"The richest legacy any man can leave to those who come after him is the legacy of a good clean memory. Nothing that he leaves will bring so much comfort to his family and friends. Men who have done most to uplift the world have left a clean memory as their greatest bequest. The world soon forgets men who simply leave treasures of wealth but writes in imperishable letters the names of men who leave a good memory. This, our brother has left to his family and loved ones.

Faithful in Many Things.
"In thinking of Abram Wood as a man who served his own generation, I want to say first he was faithful; he was faithful as a workman; his work was a personal joy and pride to him. His reputation testified to the tribute his patrons would pay to his faithfulness. He was faithful as a husband, and as a father. He was faithful to his frater-ernity and fraternity vows; he was faithful as a Christian, having for years been a devoted member of Grace church; the Biblical appreciation of faithfulness is thus expressed: 'Be thou faithful unto death and I will give thee a crown of life.'"

"He was a lover of man. How often in these last days have men remarked about his promptness to give aid and sympathy in times of affliction, sickness and death. In those days before funerals were conducted by professional undertakers, Brother Wood made himself useful in performing those duties; this meant much to a man whose time was his capital and who was busily engaged in other lines of work."

"Brother Wood was a builder, and a builder in many ways. He was a builder by occupation, constructing homes, he was a builder in his fraternity life, the order of Masons, to which he belonged, is proudly made up of builders, that is their purpose and reason for existence. He was a builder of character, according to the rules and ideals of this order. As a Christian he was a spiritual builder, a builder of those eternal mansions of which Jesus spoke to his disciples and to which he calls his own."

"He was greatly beloved by men. To this large concourse of friends and numerous tributes on every hand testify. He was trusted of men; this is clearly shown by the fact that his own neighbors placed him ten times in the city council, and that his brothers of his fraternity gave him over and over again the highest position within their gift."

Death the Beginning.
"We say our friend is dead and we make this word mean too much. What does it mean to be dead? It means no answering look from the eye, no responding pressure from the hand; the body through which he has communicated with us is cold and still; but he lives! Somewhere in God's Kingdom he is alive and active, and well and cared for by the same God that watches over his loved ones. When a man dies we say it is the end. Why not say it is the beginning? It is the end of earthly life, but it is the beginning of immortality."

"While we believe in the Christian view point, our feelings in regard to death are apt to be from the heathen standpoint. We are more impressed by the dark tributes, than the great living tributes of our faith. Love prepared the way for us when we came into this world. Likewise those who go into the beyond, are received into the arms of infinite wisdom, infinite love and infinite tenderness. The saints of the New Testament viewed death with great equanimity. Paul who anticipated a violent death speaks of it as the time of his departure. Or as the original word has it, 'Lifting anchor.' He thought of death as merely sailing out of one harbor into a larger one. On the last night when Christ was with his disciples speaking of his death to him it was going to the many mansions."

"At a time like this, our instincts concerning a future life are very clear. We are impatient about arguments regarding immortality, because as we stand by the grave of a loved one our hearts tell us so definitely of the future life. It is a great comfort to know that Christ confirmed these instincts in his last conversation with his disciples. He had not talked with them much about the future life, he did not need to, their own hearts told them and he simply confirmed these instincts when he said, 'In my father's house are many mansions, if it were not so I would have told you.' He would not permit us to live under a delusion."

"Your presence bespeaks your sympathy, which you cannot put in to words. Our hearts go out for this family. But they are not alone. The Master has assured us, I am with you even to the end of the world."
